NUMBER 15.

SENATE MET MONDAY.

Another Avalanche of Bills, Petitions, Memorials and Resolutions.

LITTLE WORK BEFORE THE HOLIDAYS.

Canal Treaty Will Claim Attention in Upper House Until Disposed of and House Will Consider Tariff Legislation For Philippines.

Washington, Dec. 9.—After the usual preliminary business in the senate Monday, which included the presentation of numerous petitions, memorials, bills and joint resolutions, Mr. Gallinger (N. H.) asked for a reprint of the document relating to ecclesiastical holdings in the Philippines. He said there was a great public demand for this publication. The reprint was ordered by the senate.

Mr. Hoar (Mass.) presented a joint resolution authorizing the president to enter into negotiations with civilized nations for the purpose of confining persons attempting the lives of chief magistrates.

A resolution appropriating $75,000 for transporting and the installation of the government exhibit at the Charleston exposition was adopted.

Mr. McLaurin (S. C.) made a speech in the senate defending his position in South Carolina and discussing the campaign in that state, as well as his position regarding federal patronage in South Carolina and his relationship with it. He said the campaign against him has been one of calumny, vituperation and misrepresentation. As to the appointments in the state, he sought to have Democrats appointed, and where this could not be accomplished he tried to have such Republicans elected as would give satisfaction to the people. He said he did not want the crime of burning a postmaster repeated in his state. Mr. McLaurin said the movement against him in the Democratic party was one to keep alive sectionalism.

Mr. Tillman replied to Mr. McLaurin, denying there was a conspiracy against him. Mr. Tillman referred to the resignations of the senators from South Carolina and their subsequent withdrawals. Mr. Hoar referred to this fact, and said that he did not understand how resignations could be withdrawn. Mr. Tillman said he would be glad to have the judiciary committee investigate the matter and the senate declare both seats from South Carolina vacant "so we could wash our dirty linen elsewhere." Mr. McLaurin said he would join with Mr. Tillman in having the seats declared vacant and meet him anywhere.

Mr. Tillman immediately offered to sign with Mr. McLaurin resignations and send them to President pro tempore Frye, and let that settle it. Mr. Tillman declared that he did not want the vote of South Carolina divided, and would be "willing to go before the people with McLaurin on his new-fangled issues. Mr. Hoar again asserted that upon the statement of the senators from South Carolina he did not believe either of them were entitled to seats on the floor. Mr. Tillman said he was glad to find his own opinion backed up by the chairman of the judiciary committee. He did not believe the governor had anything to do with the matter, and could not refuse to accept resignations. He thought the committee on privileges and elections should inquire into the whole case.

At this point Mr. Lodge (Mass.) secured recognition, and said: "While these resignations are preparing I move the senate proceed to the consideration of executive business," and the motion was carried amidst a laugh at the expense of the South Carolina senators.

New Ship Subsidy Bill.

Senator Frye introduced the new ship subsidy bill. It differs in form from the subsidy bill of the past two sessions, and is divided into four titles and 15 sections.

The sections under the title "Ocean mail steamships" are devoted to amendments to the ocean mail act of 1891. The postmaster general is required to consider the national defense and the maritime interests of the United States, as well as postal interests, in providing for the transportation of American ocean mails. The present limit of ocean mail contracts, ten years, is increased to fifteen years. The Frye bill provides seven distinct classes, with a rate of $6 to 20-knot steamers.

The second title, "General subsidy," contains the general subsidy for all vessels, steam or sail, which are not under mail contracts. This general subsidy is uniform, 1 cent per gross ton 100 nautical miles for not exceeding 16 entries in one year. To promote the building of new ocean vessels an additional allowance of 1 1/4 cents per gross ton is made for five years. A vessel to receive the general subsidy must carry mails if required, and must train in seamanship or engineering one American youth for each

1,000 tons, the vessel to be at the service of the government if required for defense. Any vessel to receive subsidy must be class A 1, and at least one-fourth of the crew must be American. The bill provides an annual bounty of $2 a ton for deep-sea fishing vessels and of $1 a month for American citizens when engaged in deep-sea fisheries; that a vessel shall receive only one form of subsidy, and that a vessel which has received a subsidy shall not be sold to a foreigner except by consent of the secretary of the treasury. The bill does not provide for American registry for foreign ships owned by Americans.

At 2:35 the senate went into executive session on the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and at 2:55 adjourned.

There was no session of the house Monday, the house having adjourned Friday to meet Tuesday.

Program For the Week.

In the senate the most important matter to be considered during the week is the new Hay-Pauncefote treaty, making provision for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty and the construction of an isthmian canal by the United States. Acting for the committee on foreign relations Senator Lodge will ask the senate to go into executive session each day for the consideration of the treaty. It can be said that at this time the prospect is very strong that the treaty will be ratified, and it now looks as if this result would be secured after comparatively little delay. There will be some debate and some features of the document will be criticised as undesirable. The criticism will be along the lines indicated by Senators Money and Bacon in the committee on foreign relations at its meeting last Friday. No senator thus far, however, has shown a disposition to carry his objections to the point of ultimate effort to defeat ratification. Beyond considering the treaty very little business will be undertaken before the holidays. It is now generally agreed that the question of reciprocity will go over until January. When the reciprocity treaties do come up for consideration there will be persistent opposition to the agreement with France and to that with Great Britain covering the West Indies. There is not so much feeling over the conventions with the South American republics. The present outlook also is against any immediate action in the senate looking to tariff legislation for the Philippines, and there are some indications that the senate will wait upon the house of representatives in this matter. Probably the Chinese exclusion act will be reported from the committee during the week. The nomination of Attorney General Knox will be reported at the first executive session, but immediate confirmation may be antagonized.

It is probable that during this week the house will pass a measure to meet the situation created by the Philippine decision of the supreme court Dec. 2.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee have not decided upon the character of the measure which will be reported. A difference of opinion exists as to whether there should be a temporary enactment of the Dingley rates on goods entering the United States from the Philippines or whether a permanent scheme of tariff legislation for the islands should be prepared. It is understood that Mr. Payne, chairman of the committee, and Mr. Dalzell, favor the latter course. Of course, if it is decided to enact a temporary measure, the procedure will be exceedingly simple and it probably can be passed in a day. If, on the other hand, an entire scheme of tariff legislation is to be enacted, more time will be required to prepare and pass it.

Payne's Philippine Tariff Plan.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Chairman Payne of the Ways and Means committee submitted to his Republican colleagues of the committee a revenue tariff bill for the Philippines, which he had drawn to meet the conditions of the recent supreme court decision. The Republican members of the committee met to continue the discussion of the general subject. The meeting was executive, and was preliminary to a full meeting of the committee Tuesday morning, when a Philippine tariff measure will be submitted to the Democratic members and be voted upon. The Payne bill is quite brief, the two main features applying the Dingley law as against Philippine exports to this country, and applying the Philippine commission's tariff schedule to goods entering the Philippines. A further section grants a rebate of customs tax on goods which have paid an internal revenue tax in this country. There is no proviso in the measure that it shall be temporary, so that the rates, if imposed, would be applicable until congress otherwise acted.

Michigan Village In Ruins.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Dec. 9.—The entire business portion of the village of Gobles, 20 miles west of Kalamazoo, was destroyed by fire, 16 business places being burned. Total loss is estimated at about $100,000; insurance small. The cause of the fire, which started in a butcher shop, is unknown. There was no loss of life.

MOUNTAIN MEN FOILED

Daring Attempt Was Made to Rescue Howard From the Sheriff.

BUT BERRY WAS LANDED IN JAIL.

Wanted For Alleged Complicity in Assassination of Governor Goebel and Managed to Elude the Officers a Long Time.

Corbin, Ky., Dec. 9.—Friends of Berry Howard, the mountain feud leader, made an attempt to rescue him as he was being taken to Frankfort to answer to an indictment charging him with complicity in murdering William Goebel, for which he was arrested by Sheriff Broughton and his deputy, who got the drop on Howard and his bodyguard after luring them into Pineville. As soon as Howard was arrested his friends, who had protected him nearly two years, swore he should never be taken to Frankfort. A guard of 25 armed men was maintained over the prisoner while here, and 10 men accompanied Sheriff Broughton and the prisoner to Frankfort.

When the train reached Pineville Sheriff Broughton and his posse boarded it with the prisoner, and were given one coach, which was locked at both ends. At the same time three men, friends of Howard, boarded the engine. They covered Engineer John Langan with pistols and commanded him to back the train to Middlesborough, the intention being to rescue Howard where his friends are most numerous and where the mountains afford the quickest escape. The engineer induced the men to go to the assistance of Howard's friends, then pulled the throttle and sped on toward Frankfort. Meantime Sheriff Broughton and deputies had an exciting time with the rescuers, but succeeded in getting the prisoner aboard as the train pulled out for Frankfort, where Howard was safely landed in jail.

Claims He Is Innocent.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 9.—Berry Howard of Bell county was indicted for complicity in the murder of William Goebel, and has been a fugitive more than a year. Howard was assigned quarters in the jail with Caleb Powers and James Howard, a relative, charged with the same crime. Howard protests his innocence, and says he became a fugitive in the mountain section only because he did not want to lie in jail here. He will ask for an immediate hearing, and if this is denied, that he be released on bond. Howard represented the counties of Bell, Harland, Perry and Leslie in the legislature in 1891-2 and 1893 as a Democrat, when Goebel represented Kenton county in the house.

Dix Doesn't Want to Come Back.

London, Dec. 9.—H. St. John Dix, who is charged with larceny committed in the United States, and who is alleged to have wrecked the Scandinavian-American bank at Whatecom, Wash., was again remanded to the Bow street police court until Dec. 17, in spite of the protests of the United States embassy officials. Counsel for the prisoner claimed he had not had time to examine the extradition papers. Mr. Dix, who looked exceedingly dapper, addressed the court in support of the further remand, declaring, "there is a lot which is not true in those papers."

John Bull Denounced.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—At the meeting held here to protest against the concentration policy of Great Britain in the war with the Boers, addresses were made by Bourke Cockran, Judge Theodore Brentano, Judge M. T. Tuley and others. A letter from Carl Schurz approving the objects of the meeting was read. Resolutions were adopted calling on President Roosevelt to take steps to end the Boer war, protesting against the concentration camps, and to stop the shipping of American horses and mules to the British in South Africa.

Shot by Secret Enemy.

Hartford City, Ind., Dec. 9.—An unknown enemy made a desperate attempt to kill H. O. Thomas, manager of the Mercer Lumber company. Five shots were fired through a glass window, striking the desk at which Mr. Thomas was seated. The authorities have a clew as to the identity of the would-be murderer, but are withholding their information. Sensational developments are expected.

Texas Blizzard.

St. Louis, Dec. 9.—Telegrams from Texas say that the first real snowstorm of the season prevailed all over northern and northwestern Texas, accompanied by very cold weather. Ranchmen fear heavy loss of live stock in the lower and central Panhandle sections, where cattle are thin in flesh and feed and water are scarce.

Lima, Peru, Dec. 9.—The Bolivian congress is discussing in secret session the proposal from England to hand the administration of the Acre territory to an English syndicate.

UNIVERSITY EXTENS ON.

Carnegie Reduces His Wealth by a Big Contribution.

Washington, Dec. 9.—It is reported that Andrew Carnegie is to give $10,000,000 to the cause of university extension in the United States, and that announcement of the gift will be made at the White House, Tuesday. Mr. Carnegie was here a few days ago and took luncheon with President Roosevelt, when details of the plan were fully discussed.

Mr. Carnegie has thought best to create a national board to handle this benevolence, and it is said President Roosevelt will probably name such a board for Mr. Carnegie, or at least set in motion the machinery which shall lead to a national organization.

Nicholas Murray Butler, who succeeded Seth Low at the head of Columbia college, was here two days, a guest of President Roosevelt at the White House, and it is said he aided in perfecting the plans. Mr. Butler has long been one of the foremost champions of the university extension, and it is understood Mr. Carnegie has had frequent consultation with him concerning the enterprise. According to plans prepared by Mr. Carnegie and his advisers, the national organization is to have its headquarters in Washington, but its operations are to extend throughout the United States, the work to be carried on in co-operation with universities everywhere.

DANES DON'T CARE.

Agrarian Interests Paramount to Keeping the Islands.

Copenhagen, Dec. 9.—The economic situation in the Danish West Indies is bad, owing to the fall in the price of sugar, but St. Thomas has an excellent harbor, which would be strategically and commercially valuable to the United States.

It is significant that in 1867 the United States offered for the two smallest islands nearly double the sum now offered for all three.

The Danish party which is opposing the sale points out that it would be unwise to sell the best harbor in the West Indies just when the isthmian canal is about to be built, but the majority of Danes have only agrarian interests, and have, therefore, no special interest in retaining the islands.

Preferred His Job.

Denver, Dec. 9.—Charles D. Ford, register of the United States land office here and chairman of the Republican state central committee, has resigned the committee chairmanship, in compliance with the national administration's policy that federal officeholders must not hold active office in local political organizations. Mr. Ford says he had made up his mind to give up the chairmanship of the state central committee before the order from Washington was promulgated.

Hero of Two Wars.

St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 9.—Colonel John G. Doniphan, hero of the Mexican and civil wars, and for 50 years prominent in the affairs of Missouri, died at his home in this city. Colonel Doniphan was born in Ohio in 1826. He was an Odd Fellow of national prominence, and was the first president of the Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs railroad.

Vicar of Ottumwa Dead.

Somerville, Mass., Dec. 9.—The Rev. Hugh B. Kelly, 51, vicar general of the diocese of Ottumwa, Iowa, died here at the home of his sister. He was taken ill on his journey east. He was a graduate of Somerville high school, of Boston college, and of St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore. He was ordained in the cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston, by Archbishop Williams, Dec. 19, 1885.

Goudie Admits Forgery.

London, Dec. 9.—Thomas Peterson Goudie, former bookkeeper of the Bank of Liverpool; Dick Burge, the pugilist, and F. T. Kelly, the bookmaker of Bradford, were arraigned in connection with the Liverpool bank frauds. Goudie admitted he forged checks, but disputed the amount.

Negro Rioters on Trial.

Andalusia, Ala., Dec. 9.—The preliminary hearing of the negroes charged with participation in the riot last week in which two white men were killed began here Monday morning. The courtroom was crowded, and outside the Greenville company of militia was on guard.

Head-End Collision.

North Yakima, Wash., Dec. 9.—A head-end collision between eastbound and westbound freight trains, two miles north of here on the Northern Pacific, resulted in the death of two trainmen and the injury of several others. Three engines and 33 cars were destroyed.

Iceland's Pyrite Mines.

Copenhagen, Dec. 9.—American capitalists are examining the pyritiferous lands in Iceland with the view of purchasing or leasing them from the government. These properties were formerly leased by an English syndicate, whose concessions were revoked because the rent was not paid.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Measures Affecting the Welfare of Those Who Labor.

MANY MATTERS BEING CONSIDERED.

American Federation Declares For Free Shops for Journeymen Tailors, Better Conditions For Seamen and Recognition of Labels.

Scranton, Dec. 9.—The committee on resolutions engaged the attention of the American Federation of Labor Monday. The committee reported a number of resolutions, and the delegates immediately proceeded to consider them. The resolutions were read by the chairman of the committee, E. A. Gard, glass-bottle maker and mayor of Fairbury, Ills. The first resolution considered pledged the assistance of the federation of the Journeymen Tailors' union of America in its contest for free shops. The resolution was adopted. The following resolutions were also adopted: Petitioning congress to amend the marine laws so that every seaman shall have the right to quit any merchant vessel on which service has become obnoxious to him; also to prohibit towing gigantic rafts on the oceans.

The committee on labels reported the following resolutions, which were adopted by the convention: That the federation refuse to recognize labels gotten up by rival unions of the Tobacco Workers' International union; endorsing the blue label of the Tobacco Workers' union; that the federation draw up a form of obligation that will instruct all new members to demand the union-label wherever they purchase manufactured goods; endorsing the union stamp of the International Union of Journeymen Horsehoers, and endorsing the label of the Actors' National Protective union.

A resolution boycotting cigars made by child labor and machinery caused a long discussion. Many delegates opposed the word "machinery," maintaining that the federation could not successfully oppose the introduction of machinery. They advocated the organization of operators of the machines like those who operate typesetting machines. The resolution with the word "machinery" stricken out was adopted.

Some business of a purely routine nature was disposed of and the convention adjourned until 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. This was to allow the several committees time to give the delegates a hearing on resolutions that have been referred for consideration.

Before adjournment President Gompers announced the appointment of President W. D. Mahon of the Amalgamated Association of Streetcar Employees, and President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers as a committee to take charge of the streetcar strike in this city.

Catholic Confederation.

Cincinnati, Dec. 9.—Much interest was taken among officers and such delegates as had arrived for the convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies, which begins Tuesday. The permanent organization of a central combination of all the Catholic societies is regarded as one of the most important steps that has ever been taken for the church in America. Although the federation has the approval of distinguished prelates, it was thought there would be strong opposition to such a general organization, but so far the indications are to the contrary. The leaders say it is not proposed to interfere with the autonomy of the Hibernians, the Knights of St. John, the American Catholic union, the German Catholic Verein, the Catholic Knights of America, or any other Catholic societies, but to form a federation in which they will all be represented for a common purpose without changing the old organization in any manner.

Crusade Against Polygamy.

Washington, Dec. 9.—At a meeting held at First Congregational church under the auspices of the Woman's International union, a resolution was adopted endorsing an amendment to the constitution prohibiting polygamy within the domain of the United States, and urging the passage of a bill with that object in view by the present congress. A preamble to the resolution expressed the belief that polygamy, as taught by the Church of the Latter-Day Saints, is still a part of their belief and practice; that the laws of Utah are inadequate to suppress it, and that there is no way by which this offense can be so satisfactorily reached as through the constitution of the United States.

Took Poison With Dinner.

Findlay, O., Dec. 9.—While eating dinner with his family Monroe Trout, 45, took strychnine in whiskey, remarking at the time, "In two hours there's no telling where I'll be." The dose proved fatal. Financial difficulties are said to have been the cause.

A NATIONAL DISGRACE.

The outrageous treatment by the naval clique of those brave and gallant commanders Admiral Schley and Captains Cook and Clark, is a disgrace to this Government, and Congress will not be doing its duty if it does not right the great wrong done these brave and noble men.

The Washington Post publishes a table of figures taken from the records of the Auditor for the Navy Department, showing the prize and bounty moneys which have been distributed among the commanding officers who participated in the naval operations in the war with Spain. The figures are authentic. They were obtained with the consent of Secretary Gage and compiled by clerks under the direction of the Auditor of the Navy Department. "They show with painful clearness," says a special, "that the system of favoritism which enabled Sampson to become commander of the most important fleet of modern warships that was ever organized was maintained to the point of securing for him payment of the sum of $25,796.44 as bounty and prize money in recognition of feats of valor which he did not perform during the Spanish war. His prize money for vessels captured and destroyed by the Brooklyn and Oregon under command of Rear Admiral Schley amounted to $14,132.44.

"This money, in addition to $3,330 for bounty alleged to have been earned at Manzanillo, and $8,335 for prizes captured in the West Indian operations, has actually been paid to Sampson. He used it to buy himself a house in the fashionable quarter of Washington.

"More extraordinary even than these payments to Sampson was the payment of $14,026.08 to Captain French E. Chadwick, who commanded the New York, Sampson's flagship. The records show that Chadwick drew two portions of bounties and prize money, one as Fleet Captain and chief of staff and the other as Captain of the New York, which did not participate in the destruction of Cervera's fleet and only arrived at the point where the Colon went ashore and surrendered one hour and twenty-three minutes after her flag had been struck to Admiral Schley.

"Admiral Schley, who discovered the Spanish fleet at Santiago and successfully bottled it in that port and who at a later date, with the Brooklyn and the Oregon, destroyed Cervera's ships while Sampson was absent with the New York, has received from the Treasury up to date the insignificant sum of $149.53. This was his share for the capture of a Spanish schooner. The Naval Prize Court awarded him $3,334. For some reason, which nobody undertakes to explain, this money has been and is being withheld from the hero of Santiago. It is supposed to represent the share to which he is entitled for the destruction of Cervera's ships.

"Chadwick, a mere Captain, who was ashore at Siboney when Schley opened the engagement with the Spanish fleet, is awarded $11,775.10 as the Captain of the New York, and $1,584.98 as fleet Captain because the Spanish fleet was destroyed. Not only is this the case, but he has collected the money. He and Sampson, the two pets of the naval clique, headed by Crowninshield, have been enabled to draw from the Treasury the rewards which are so obviously out of proportion to the services they rendered their country. The only manner in which they could have secured this money was through the influence of Secretary Long.

"Admiral Schley, notwithstanding that he received but $149.53, is fortunate by comparison with Capt. Francis A. Cook, the gallant and loyal sailor who commanded the Brooklyn, and Capt. Charles E. Clark, who commanded the "bulldog" of the navy, the battleship Oregon. Neither of these officers has received a dollar. Capt. Cook's award is the paltry sum of $2,190.32, while that of Capt. Clark is $1,989.00, less than Evans' and Taylor's, and but slightly more than that of the late Capt. Philip of the Texas. The Brooklyn and the Oregon fought and won the battle. The Brooklyn, single-handed, as was made clear in the Schley Court of Inquiry, bore the brunt of the battle with Cervera's ships without assistance for twenty-five minutes before the Oregon came to her aid.

"Commander Wainwright, who commanded the Gloucester and fought the Spanish torpedo boats single-handed, has been awarded $435.68, but has not received a dollar of it.

The tract of 228 acres, known as the Black Diamond farm, adjoining Dover, was sold Saturday to satisfy a mortgage claim of Louis Stix & Co., of Cincinnati, for $7,500. On top of this E. E. Galbreath, cashier of the Ripley National Bank, had notes against the trustees of the Black Diamond Railway Company for $3,000 and interest, and he bid the land in at about $11,000 to protect the same.

The Louisville Commercial Club, the largest organization of the kind in Kentucky, has petitioned Gov. Beckham to recommend in his message to the General Assembly changes in the taxing laws which will tend to influence capital to come into the State. The club wants an amendment striking out the double liability clause in the present corporation law, an amendment to the present Constitution to give cities local self-government in all taxing matters within their limits, and the passing of an act creating a State bureau of information and immigration to encourage outside capital.

"Commander Sharp, of the Vixen, who displayed reckless valor in keeping abreast of the fight, notwithstanding that his ship was a mere cockleshell, was awarded but $339.32, as against $686.80 for Captain Eaton, whose ship never got into the fight at all.

"Rear Admiral Watson, who commanded the division off Havana, where he undoubtedly performed services as gallant as those credited to Sampson, has been paid $18."

And so the disgraceful and shameful story runs. The people should demand of their Representatives in Congress that this great wrong should be righted.

HOW IT SPREADS.

People Are Talking All Over Maysville. This Report Comes From East Fourth Street.

How it spreads. Can't keep a "good thing" down. Ever notice how "good things are imitated?" Better the article, more imitators. Fortunately the people have a safeguard. Praise can't be imitated. And true praise takes root and spreads. Claim is one thing, proof another. Claim is what the manufacturer says. Proof is what the people say. Maysville people say Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, Cure all kidney ills. Hundreds of citizens testify to this. Here is a case in point.

Mrs. Mary Kinsler, of 362 East Fourth street, says: "I sent a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Markets streets, to a relative living in the country who was much troubled with kidney complaint. The results obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills show that only terms of highest praise express the great curative properties of the medicine."

Army and navy work of the Young Men's Christian Association has become so thoroughly organized that it can almost be said that wherever the United States Government sends its soldiers and sailors association secretaries will either go along or very soon follow. The department now enjoys the distinction of having a branch so far north in Alaska that, with the exception of one mission station, it is the farthest north that Christian work is done in North America.

The entertainment at the opera house last night by the John Thomas Concert Company was without doubt one of the best ever given in Maysville. Only about fifty people were present, but the members of the company played and sang with as much charming grace and pleasure as if the house had been packed. To be brief each member of this company is a star. The violin playing by Mrs. Annie Webster Davis has never been equaled in Maysville. Miss Berry's piano selections were charmingly rendered, and rarely is a sweeter voice heard than that of Miss Lamport. And John Thomas, the humorist, is a whole show by himself. They deserved a packed house. May they come our way again.

RIVER NEWS.

The Pittsburg Towboat Fred Wilson Sinks a Number of Barges of Coal Near Springdale.

The Pittsburg towboat Fred Wilson met with a disastrous accident Sunday night near Springdale. She ran her tow of twenty-one barges of coal on the shore, sinking ten of them, and another was so badly damaged it had to be left at the head of Charleston bar. The Ed. Roberts passed up this morning with a coal digger for the scene of the accident, and will make an effort to save the coal. Some of the wrecked barges rest on the shore. It is said the big coal combine had a packet pilot in charge of the Wilson at the time of the accident. On account of the strike of the pilots the combine has been using a number of packet pilots.

PITHY POINTS.

Captain Carter seems as hard to down as Banquo's ghost.

Mrs. Nation seems to "carry on" pretty well without Mr. Carrie.

Cap. Carter may go down in history as the companion piece of Sampson and Taylor for modesty.

The biggest deal that Capt. Carter ever "engineered" was against the Government, at whose expense he learned the art.

All that gave Cap. Carter any prominence above an ordinary thief was the success with which he concealed his ill-gotten gains.

Mr. Carrie Nation got his share of all the fame achieved by Mrs. Nation so long as the partnership held, although he may not have taken any active part in the business. This, of course, is all done away with now that the courts have given him his maiden name.

What's in a name anyhow? Here's Mrs. Nation who bears an unpretentious appellation, while her liege lord bears the name of one who doubtless, was as peaceful as any of whom history records; yet she seems always to have carried on without any moral support from him, much less physical.

"Take care of the pennies and the pounds will take care of themselves."

Large things are but an aggregation of small things. If we take care of the small things we are in effect taking care of the large things which the small things combine to make.

Take care of what you eat, when you eat, and how you eat, and your stomach will take care of itself. But who takes care of such trivial things? That is why, someday, the majority of people have to take care of the stomach. When that day comes, there is no aid so effective in undoing the result of past carelessness as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, and restores the organs of digestion and nutrition to a condition of healthy activity. It cures biliousness, heartburn, flatulence, indigestion, palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities and a score of other ailments which are but the symptoms of disorder in the stomach and its allied organs.
